

Rural Electrification : International Experience and Development in Thailand

LIVE

Free!

25th September 2020

09.00 – 17.00 hrs.

Seminar Room A (EH101)

English/Thai (Interpretation Service is provided for this session)

Organised by:

Morning session

Island and remote area electrification from international experiences

Welcome Remarks

- by Dr. Twarath Sutabutr Chief Inspector General, Ministry of Energy, Thailand (1)

Rural electrification around the world: fact and lessons learned

- by Mr. Simon Rolland, Energy Programme Director, GIZ Thailand (2)

Experiences and lesson learn from Indonesia and Myanmar

- Electrification situation
 - Overview of project implementation
 - Experience, challenges and lesson learn
 - Policy and regulation support in the areas
- Mr. Catoer Wibowo, Senior Advisor, GIZ Indonesia (3)
- Ms. Barani Aung, Managing Director, Techno-Hill Engineering Co., Ltd. (4)

Panel discussion: Opportunities on Southeast Asia

Afternoon session

Rural Electrification in Thailand Towards SDG Goal 7

Keynote: Reflection on the current status of rural electrification in Thailand

by Dr. Twarath Sutabutr, Chief Inspector General, Ministry of Energy, Thailand (1)

Rural electrification pathways and experiences for Thai islands and remote areas:

- Grid extension
- Solar home system
- Micro grid

Experts from mentioned technologies:

- Mr. Pongsakorn Yuthagovit, Assistant Governor (Planning and Power System Development), The Provincial Electricity Authority
- Dr. Suchat Srikaew, Association President, Renewable Energy for Sustainable Association (5)
- Mr. Tanai Potisat, Project Lead, ReCharge Social enterprise

GIZ recommendations for accelerated rural electrifications

Panel discussion: Direction to achieve 100% energy access in Thailand